

April 25, 2019

Unifor vows to fight privatization of health care in Ontario, and gears up for a massive rally. Plus, Bell Canada lays off dozens of workers while it outsources jobs for a new wireless internet program. And, combatting hate in the aftermath of the horrific attacks in Sri Lanka.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Unifor vows to fight Doug Ford's plan to privatize health care and implement widespread cuts.

READ MORE

Join us for a rally to let the Ontario government know we're serious about protecting public health care.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Bell Canada lays off 76 technicians, and plans to outsource work for new high-speed internet program.

READ MORE

B.C.'s container truck drivers welcome new pay hike and look forward to more changes to improve working conditions.

Unifor condemns attacks in Sri Lanka and calls for compassion and acceptance to combat threats to religious freedom.

READ MORE

MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Negotiations with Extencicare nursing homes begin, with a focus on better conditions for personal support workers.

READ MORE

Workers at Ottawa's Fairmont Chateau Laurier vote in favour of strike, as employer remains inflexible on key issues.

READ MORE

Members in three long-term care homes ratify agreements which will improve conditions for both workers and residents.

READ MORE

Ratification of new agreement secures paid sick days, vacation and education leave for members at Glazier Medical Centre.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Bell Canada prides itself on promoting talk about mental health. It's time to talk about how it treats its workers.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

This Sunday, April 28, take some time to remember Canadian workers who died, were injured or became ill on the job.

READ MORE

Unifor