

unILINK

February 28, 2019

Share your experience with repetitive strain injury, sign the petition to restore Northern Ontario's rail service and mark your calendars for International Women's Day marches. We weigh in on the BC NDP budget and share updates on conferences happening this week.

WHAT'S HOT

Read Unifor's RSI Awareness Day

TAKE ACTION

Save Ontario's Northlander train – sign statement and take the RSI survey to shape our union's health and safety initiatives.

READ MORE

this petition today to help restore passenger rail service to Northern Ontario.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Listen to Lana Payne's radio interview about Northern Pulp workers and what is at stake if their N.S. mill closes.

READ MORE

BC NDP budget removes interest on provincial student loans, invests in health care, poverty reduction and transit.

Proposed amalgamation of Ontario's healthcare oversight and delivery into an unaccountable partisan agency is troubling.

MORE

Unifor contributes $15,000 to organization supporting parents who lost all seven of their children in Halifax fire.

READ MORE

MORE

As Black History Month wraps up, we reflect on challenges members face and celebrate their activism and resistance.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

More than 350 members at Local 103 ratify five collective agreements with Ontario Northland Transportation Commission.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Members discuss outsourcing, technological change and political action at telecommunications conference.

RESOURCES

Here is a list of International Women's Day marches happening across Canada. Join in at the one nearest to you.

READ MORE

READ MORE

Unifor