

January 24, 2019

As GM threatens the livelihoods of workers, the well-being of families and the economy of the country, Unifor takes action and shuts down GM HQ. Activists rally against the threats to post-secondary education, calling for investment in public infrastructure and services.

WHAT'S HOT

TAKE ACTION

TAKE 20 Take 20 minutes to make learning together part of your everyday.

ACTIVITY 1
Do a kitchen experiment or mix up a batch of playdough.
FamilyLiteracyDay.ca

ABC
Life, Literacy Canada

Members engage in action at GM Oshawa as employer resists upholding commitments of the 2016 collective agreement.

READ MORE

This Sunday marks Family Literacy Day – here are some ideas for fun activities to get your family started!

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor welcomes Notley government's loan guarantee to Calgary-based firm planning to build new oil upgrading facility.

READ MORE

Members attend community rallies as budget hearings begin, to indicate priorities the Ontario budget should reflect.

Activists protest gender-based violence, environmental ruin and human rights violations at Indigenous Peoples March.

READ MORE

Join us as workers and students unite to protest against Ford government cutbacks.

READ MORE

PC government's cuts to colleges and universities and attack on student unions risk making education inaccessible.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Casino Rama workers at Local 1090 reach tentative agreement with scheduling provisions and wage gains.

READ MORE

Bell Sales groups reach tentative agreement. Negotiations focused on respect at work, wages, and job security.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Check out pictures from nation-wide marches for gender equality as advocates took to the streets for

RESOURCES

Hear from suppliers and local business owners about the devastating domino effect GM's Oshawa closure would cause.

women's rights.

READ MORE

READ MORE

