

unILINK

July 4, 2019

Unifor launches petition as grocery stores in Newfoundland and across Canada cut full time jobs and replace them with part time positions. In Saskatchewan, preparations are underway to take strike votes at the Crown corporations. And don't wait to register for Unifor's Constitutional Convention.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

The deadline is fast approaching to register for Unifor's Convention in Quebec City!

READ MORE

Loblaw cuts full-time jobs at Newfoundland Dominion stores as it continues to expand its part-time workforce. Sign the petition now to stop Loblaw's push for a part-time Canada!

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor preparing for battle at Saskatchewan's crown corporations.

READ MORE

Show your support for good jobs in telecommunications, and tell Bell bosses to stop the outsourcing.

READ MORE

Unifor sends support and solidarity to injured Irving Shipbuilding worker and will follow investigation closely.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor Local 2002 members at the GTAA have been successful at converting their defined contribution pension into a defined benefit plan.

READ MORE

Hardboard mill workers at Louisiana-Pacific in NS ratify a new agreement by 97 per cent.

READ MORE

Nine Unifor locals in the energy sector across Ontario have ratified new three-year collective agreements with Enbridge Gas Inc.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

RESOURCES

 CONVENTION CONGRES 2019
RESOLUTIONS AND CONSTITUTIONAL AMENDMENTS

BC Area Director Gavin McGarrigle shares his story of organizing to win better working conditions in the notoriously challenging hospitality sector.

READ MORE

Review the Resolutions and Constitutional Amendments that are set to hit the floor at Convention 2019.

READ MORE

Unifor