

June 27, 2019

Unifor members stand up for equality at Pride and at the AWOC Conference. Negotiations underway to seek fair agreements for IPS workers impacted by GM Oshawa. And the Unifor Social Justice Fund launches a new mental health program for children in Cat Lake First Nations.

 WHAT'S HOT

This summer we'll be launching a campaign to raise the profile of Canada's Energy Future,

 TAKE ACTION

Take the Unifor federal election survey on Facebook and enter to win the importance of good jobs, and just transition.

READ MORE

a $5000 dollar Air Canada Vacations voucher.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Pride season brings out the best in Unifor's LGBTQ community. Connect with your regional committee for upcoming events.

READ MORE

Unifor reinforces demand for fair agreements for independent auto parts and suppliers workers impacted by discontinuation of vehicle production at General Motors Oshawa.

The Unifor Social Justice Fund and Save the Children Canada partner to provide mental health support to children coping with a housing and health emergency in Cat Lake First Nation.

READ MORE

Aboriginal and Workers of Colour Conference embraces reconciliation.

READ MORE

Workers remembered on the 35th anniversary of the Falconbridge mine tragedy.

READ MORE

READ MORE

New members welcomed after Winnipeg plant merger.

READ MORE

 BARGAINING UPDATES

Canadian Coast Guard Marine

Communications Officers secure tentative agreement with strong gains and a focus on inclusivity.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 2000 has ratified a first collective agreement for 11 reporters working at Torstar's StarMetro Vancouver.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Unifor re-commits to the national campaign for the adoption of the recommendations of the Truth and Reconciliation Commission.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

The 2019 Unifor Regional Women's Conference is an opportunity to come together, build skills, exchange knowledge, and strategize for the future. Registration deadline is June 30 so sign up now!

READ MORE

Unifor