

unILINK

May 2, 2019

Unifor reaches a deal with Bell to reverse the layoffs of 76 technicians. Thousands rally to fight cuts to public health care in Ontario. Plus, bargaining team members secure a tentative deal with Stock Transportation and avert a potential school bus driver strike.

WHAT'S HOT

TAKE ACTION

Members rally to send a clear message to Doug Ford: when public health care comes under attack, Unifor will fight back.

READ MORE

Join the Saskatchewan Crown corporation workers rally to show your support as they bargain for fair contracts.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor reverses layoffs of 76 Bell Canada technicians and vows to block further attempts to eliminate jobs.

READ MORE

B.C.'s NDP government takes action to stop contract flipping, but falls short on making it easier to join a union.

READ MORE

Unifor marks International Workers' Day with a pledge to fight for all workers and a call to end injustice.

READ MORE

Closing the gender wage gap
requires real change,
mandating a living wage is a start.

UNIFOR
The Union | Unifor
unifor.org/closethegap

Judicial review rules in favour of Unifor and Equal Pay Coalition in pay equity dispute with nursing home employers.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Toronto-area school bus drivers secure a tentative agreement and gain public support for better working conditions.

READ MORE

Members at IGI International Group ratify new four-year agreement featuring wage increases and benefit improvements.

READ MORE

Negotiations with Extendicare fail to address safe staffing ratios and break down over monetary proposals.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

RESOURCES

Members learn about Employment Insurance and the Canada Pension Plan to help them answer questions in their workplaces.

READ MORE

Welcome to the 180 workers at Welded Tube of Canada who have voted to join Unifor. Find out about our new member kits.

READ MORE

Unifor