

unILINK

May 9, 2019

Unifor and GM announce deal to save jobs and invest in Oshawa's future. Plus, paying tribute to Canada's nurses during National Nursing week. And, we're calling on Newfoundland and Labrador political parties to make a commitment to workers in the provincial election.

WHAT'S HOT

TAKE ACTION

Unifor president wants tougher action against landlords who discriminate after member's rights were repeatedly violated.

READ MORE

Mark your calendar and join us for a parade to mark the 100th Anniversary of the Winnipeg General Strike.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor and GM reach an agreement that will keep hundreds of people employed and invest millions of dollars in Oshawa.

READ MORE

Atlantic Regional Council reviews a year of incredible solidarity and outlines the

Quebec Council concludes with a commitment to solidarity and a donation challenges ahead.

READ MORE

Unifor stands up for workers at conference to discuss the impact of technology on employees and society.

READ MORE

to help flood victims.

READ MORE

During National Nursing Week, May 6-12, we recognize and celebrate the life-saving contribution of all nurses.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

CN workers in Alberta ratify new agreement securing increases in wages, training allowances and benefit improvements.

READ MORE

Toronto-area school bus drivers ratify agreements with employer that ensure they get paid for all hours they work.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Thousands of activists stood united

RESOURCES

Unifor asks all parties in NL election for a at Queen's Park to rally against planned cuts to public health care.

READ MORE

commitment to improvements for workers.
Share our demands on social media.

READ MORE

Unifor