

unILINK

May 16, 2019

Auto parts and suppliers council meets to talk strategy in the wake of Unifor-GM agreement to save jobs in Oshawa. Plus, activists attend the Unifor Pride Conference in Port Elgin to learn about issues facing LGBTQ workers. And, it's voting day in Newfoundland and Labrador.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Unifor shines light on workers' rights as voters head to the polls in Newfoundland and Labrador's provincial election.

READ MORE

Help us put pressure on senators to pass bill supporting indigenous rights, and advancing truth and reconciliation.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Independent Parts and Suppliers Council discusses strategy and pledges support for members in time of uncertainty.

READ MORE

Unifor marks the 100th anniversary of the Winnipeg General Strike, which helped shape Canada's labour laws.

READ MORE

Bell Real Talk: Over the past 10 years, Bell has slashed the number of unionized employees in nearly every unit.

READ MORE

Activists learn how to intervene in hateful situations and build a more equitable society at Unifor Pride Conference.

READ MORE

Unifor warns Bell Media that it must guide CTV staff through technological changes that come with digital restructuring.

READ MORE

Sale of Westjet to Onex Corporation means frontline workers need strong union support now, more than ever.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

CN Members of Council 4000 ratify new agreements, while CNTL members vote against ratification.

READ MORE

Telecom workers in rural Nova Scotia secure impressive first agreement including gains in the area of standby work.

READ MORE

Determined bargaining committee secures strong gains in new agreement at Autoport in Halifax.

READ MORE

Unifor reaches new tentative deal with Suncor that sets the pattern for other members of the National Energy Program.

READ MORE

 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

 RESOURCES

Watch the joint Unifor and GM news conference announcing new investments that will save hundreds of jobs in Oshawa.

READ MORE

The May 24 deadline to apply for a Unifor scholarship is approaching! Find out how to submit your application.

READ MORE

Unifor