

November 14, 2019

Hundreds of jobs created as long-fought campaign to reopen a Quebec pulp mill succeeds. Unifor seeks to end the free ride for foreign streaming giants. Plus, Canada's only weekly Indigenous newspaper recovers from a devastating arson attack.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

With the launch of Disney Plus in Canada, Unifor calls on the federal government to require internet giants to produce Canadian content and pay fair taxes.

READ MORE

Support the 5,000 transit members forced to take job action by sending a message to Coast Mountain Bus Company and Translink CEO's.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor members welcome restart of the Nordic Kraft pulp mill in Lebel-sur-Quévillon.

READ MORE

Ontario government moves toward better service from Ontario Northland, but Unifor members still fighting for return of Northlander rail.

READ MORE

Jerry Dias joins thousands of Ontarian's mobilizing against Doug Ford's assault on public health care.

READ MORE

Unifor contributes to rebuilding of Indigenous newspaper targeted in arson attack.

READ MORE

Racism has no place in hockey, in broadcasting or in our society. Read Jerry Dias' blog on the firing of Don Cherry.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Mandatory mediation fails to achieve progress as Co-op Refinery continues to rake in millions a day while attacking worker's pensions.

READ MORE

VIA Rail bargaining continue in Montreal, with resolution of grievances and proposal exchanges.

READ MORE

BC transit workers resume negotiations with Coast Mountain Bus Company with warning of escalated job action.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Unifor Atlantic Regional Director Linda MacNeil calls out Canada's richest grocery retailer for exploiting part-time workers as it eliminates full-time jobs.

READ MORE

RESOURCES

Unifor celebrates the lives of trans and non-binary members.

Trans rights are human rights.
#TDOV unifor.org/pride

The call to end violence against trans people can start in your workplace. Download and print this poster ahead of Trans Day of Remembrance on November 20.

READ MORE

Unifor