

October 17, 2019

Unifor steps up campaign to Stop Scheer as 40-day federal election campaign draws to finish. New poll shows Saskatchewan public stands with striking and locked out SaskCrown workers. Ontario members join occupation of Doug Ford's office to demand action on worker's deaths. Plus a call to amend the Criminal Code to permit Single Sport Betting.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Coast Mountain Bus Company members showed up in force to cast their votes in support of a strike mandate. Watch the video.

READ MORE

Make your plan to vote on Monday, October 21. Together we can Stop Scheer.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Canada's workers head into final push of an extensive federal election campaign, having knocked on more than 80,000 Unifor member's doors.

READ MORE

The public support for the My Crowns continues to win the hearts and minds of Saskatchewanians.

READ MORE

Unifor joins labour activist in occupation of Doug Ford's constituency office to demand action to prevent workplace death and injuries at Fiera Foods.

READ MORE

Unifor warns Co-op Refinery that construction of on-site living quarters for scab labour will derail contract talks.

READ MORE

Nova Scotia marks Continuing Care Assistant Week for the first time. Share the care with our social media graphics and Facebook profile frame.

READ MORE

Each October 18, Canada celebrates Persons Day. This year marks 70 years since women were declared persons under the constitution. Read the full statement.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Thousands of Coast Mountain Bus Company members deliver 99 per cent strike mandate ahead of bargaining round.

READ MORE

Members deliver strike mandate followed by sound rejection of so called “final offer” from Purolator.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 1256 members ratify new collective agreement with CertainTeed that includes wage gains and enhanced early retirement benefits.

READ MORE

 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

 RESOURCES

Show your support for the 5,000 Unifor members on strike or locked out in Saskatchewan by adding this Facebook frame to your profile pic.

READ MORE

Unifor calls on all federal parties to to amend the Criminal Code to permit Single Sport Betting. Read the Op-ed by National President Jerry Dias and Unifor Local 444 President Dave Cassidy.

READ MORE

Unifor