

February 6, 2020

Members from across the country help Local 594 hold the line in Regina as Co-op Refinery's decision to lock out workers threatens fuel supplies. No justice for Nova Scotia forestry workers as Northern Pulp facility forced to close. Plus, Quebec telecommunications members rally for the "Bell Let's Talk" campaign.

 WHAT'S HOT

Federal NDP leader Jagmeet Singh offers unequivocal support to locked out Co-op Refinery members as his party introduces anti-scab legislation.

WATCH VIDEO

 TAKE ACTION

Can't join the Co-op Refinery picket line in Regina? Show your support by pledging to boycott Co-op outlets across the country.

READ MORE

Federated Co-op Refinery Limited CEO Scott Banda must bear the blame if fuel shortages hurt farmers and families in Western Canada.

READ MORE

Nova Scotia forestry workers devastated as Premier Stephen McNeil fails to act to save Northern Pulp jobs.

READ MORE

Members of telecommunications locals are mobilizing to take part in several events across Quebec as part of Bell's "Let's Talk" campaign.

READ MORE

Red seal electrician at Irving Shipbuilding has her work refusal claim supported by the Nova Scotia Labour Board.

READ MORE

Unifor and the Ontario Health Coalition hold media conferences to share experiences of the Personal Support Worker crisis in long-term care homes.

READ MORE

'Celebrating Our History and Making Our Own' is the theme of this year's Black History Month, as Unifor honours the contributions of Black Canadians in our workplaces and communities.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Strike ends at Voith Hydro as Local 252 members ratify new collective agreement.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

Refinery workers and their families gathered for a family-friendly kids' party and pig roast on day 52 of the shameful lockout by Co-op.

WATCH VIDEO

RESOURCES

Combine learning and recreational activities to integrate trade unionism and social activism into the life of your family. Register now for the Unifor Family Education Program.

READ MORE

