

December 19, 2024

Ribbon Skirt Day, Unifor 2025 Pride Conference, new forestry campaign web page, 2SLGBTQIA+ activists at global conference, retirees chapters, Clear Medical Imaging talks break off, new contract with Canada Cartage, Local 114 members in the Cowichan Valley prepare to strike, and more.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Unifor leadership reflect on members' achievements in 2024 and look forward to challenges ahead in the new year.

READ MORE

Save the date: Unifor's 2025 National Pride Conference will take place on May 30!

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Read Unifor's statement on the upcoming 2025 Ribbon Skirt Day.

READ MORE

Unifor is fighting to protect good jobs amidst a perfect storm of crises impacting Canadian forestry.

READ MORE

Unifor united with 2SLGBTQIA+ activists from around the globe at the recent ILGA World Conference.

READ MORE

Retired Workers Chapters can create solidarity, provide community and mobilization for activism for seniors who want to stay engaged with Unifor.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Negotiations break off after Clear Medical Imaging refused to table an offer.

READ MORE

The Canada Cartage members at Unifor Local 222 in Oshawa, Ont. have ratified a new agreement, which includes wage increases of up to 15% over four years.

READ MORE

Members of Local 114 at Transdev on Vancouver Island have voted unanimously in favour of strike action if an agreement cannot be reached before the deadline.

READ MORE