

August 28, 2025

Unifor's 5th Constitutional Convention wraps in Vancouver with solidarity and a commitment to Canadian jobs; re-election of national officers; Bud Jimmerfield, Nelson Mandela, and Neil Reimer award winners; Unifor members reeling from surprise closure announcement at Diageo; and members agree to arbitration at Toromont Industries.

Over 1,000 Unifor members rallied in downtown Vancouver to protect Canadian jobs, industries, and communities.

VIEW PHOTOS

Join union members to celebrate Labour Day! Check our listing for event details in your region.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor brought the fight against the U.S. trade war and vowed to protect Canadian jobs at its 2025 Constitutional Convention.

READ MORE

Watch highlights from National President Lana Payne's address to Unifor's 5th Constitutional Convention.

WATCH VIDEO

Unifor members re-elect National President Lana Payne and leadership team.

READ MORE

Unifor vows to fight for jobs at Diageo's Amherstburg, Ont. facility as company announces February 2026 closure.

READ MORE

Local 1119 health and safety activist Rob Giroux was presented with the 2025 Bud Jimmerfield Award.

READ MORE

The Palestinian Journalists' Syndicate was conferred Unifor's Nelson Mandela Award to recognize the incredible risk covering the genocide in Gaza.

READ MORE

Unifor member Tanya Talaga was awarded the Neil Reimer Award for her impactful stories of Indigenous experiences.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor and Toromont Industries have reached an agreement to end the strike and go to arbitration.

READ MORE