

unILINK

February 13, 2025

The U.S. levies new tariffs on Canadian steel and aluminum, more Walmart fleet drivers join Unifor, take action for MMIWG2S on Feb. 14, Bell shamefully eliminates more jobs, Cowichan Valley transit workers in B.C. begin strike action, register for the upcoming Black History Month event, mental health education courses, a new Young Workers Committee video, and more.

WHAT'S HOT

Nearly 280 Walmart fleet drivers at an Alberta unit have joined Unifor, the third successful organizing drive at Walmart in the last six months.

READ MORE

TAKE ACTION

Wear Unifor red on Saturday to stand up for Canadian jobs and the industries that keep our communities strong.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

National President Lana Payne and Quebec Director Daniel Cloutier discuss the tariff crisis and what must be done to protect workers and build a stronger, more resilient economy.

WATCH VIDEO

Trump's tariffs on Canadian steel and aluminum are the latest attack in his economic war against Canada.

READ MORE

Unifor condemns Bell's shortsighted workforce reduction plans that will potentially cost another 1,200 workers their jobs.

READ MORE

Join Unifor members at events on February 14 to honour missing and murdered women, girls, and two-spirit people.

READ MORE

Transit workers at Transdev in the Cowichan Valley, B.C., went on strike on Feb. 8, after talks broke down between Unifor and the employer.

READ MORE

Quebec Director Daniel Cloutier makes the case for a strong industrial strategy before the Senate.

READ MORE

Register now for Unifor's Black History Month event, taking place in-person and online on February 22.

READ MORE

Sign up for Unifor Education's mental health courses, designed to give you the tools to defend workers' rights and support members in need.

READ MORE

Young workers share their vision for the union's future and commitment to workers' rights in a new video.

WATCH VIDEO

Register for Unifor's World Day for Social Justice webinar to learn how global solidarity and the Social Justice Fund are supporting international projects.

READ MORE

January's Labour Market Insights takes a closer look at how Canada's jobs market is doing from a trade union perspective.

READ MORE