

February 27, 2025

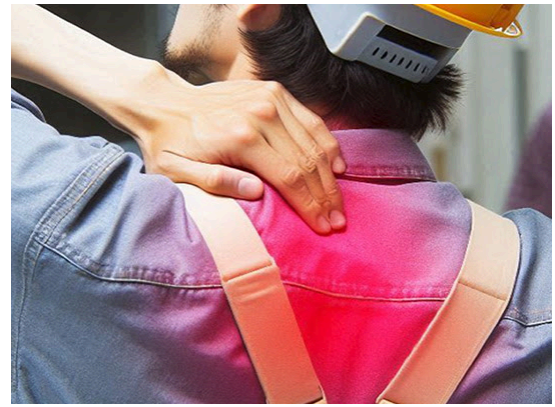

Unifor marks Black History Month with an evening of celebration and activism, months-long Best Theratronics strike ends with 100% ratification vote, Stellantis temporary pauses retooling of Brampton Assembly Plant amid tariff concerns, Unifor fights to mitigate job loss as Irving Paper slashes production, rail members at Local 101-R ratify a new agreement with Canadian Pacific Kansas City, as International Women's Day approaches members work to "rise together", and more.

Ontario Regional Council celebrated wins and set a bold vision for the future. The fight for a better Ontario starts now!

WATCH VIDEO

Last chance to register for the Feb. 28 webinar to learn how to prevent repetitive strain injuries.

REGISTER NOW

IN THE NEWS

Unifor's national Black History Month event brought members together from across Canada to celebrate Black excellence.

READ MORE

Unifor members unanimously ratified an agreement with Best Theratronics, ending the nine-month long strike.

READ MORE

Unifor is deeply concerned about a pause in retooling work at Stellantis' Brampton Assembly Plant.

READ MORE

Unifor will fight to prevent layoffs at Irving Paper after the company gave 45-day notice to nearly half its workers.

READ MORE

The Unifor Forestry Council has issued a statement about the threat of U.S. tariffs.

READ MORE

Ahead of International Women's Day, women rise together—unstoppable, unbreakable and united in the shared fight for gender justice.

READ MORE

Unifor joined the Union-Led Advisory Table to provide recommendations for assisting mid-career workers in the changing labour market.

READ MORE

On Pink Shirt Day, Unifor called to end bullying in all its forms.

READ MORE

Unifor provides members with skills needed to defend workers' rights and effectively run their locals.

EXPLORE COURSES

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor Local 101-R members ratify agreement with CPKC

READ MORE

Unifor is proud to welcome 245 part-time workers at the Nuance Group at Pearson International Airport.

READ MORE

Skilled trades and other health support workers in N.S. are frustrated as government delays meaningful bargaining.

READ MORE