

unILINK

June 5, 2025

Pride Conference celebrates 25 years, new tariffs threaten Canadian workers, journalists form workers co-op, Unifor scholarship deadline approaches, ARC and PRC re-cap videos, Unifor organizing space at YRC, Medicine Hat loses trusted local news, strike at Best Western Windsor, intimate partner violence symposium, transit rally video, and VIA Rail talks break off.

Journalists in B.C. form a new co-op with the goal of launching a newspaper.

READ MORE

Apply by June 20 for Unifor's $2,000 scholarships, supporting members and their children studying in Canada.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor hosted its 25th Pride Conference, celebrating a quarter century of solidarity, advocacy, and movement building.

READ MORE

The Atlantic Regional Council explored how members drive the union and change happens when members are active.

WATCH VIDEO

Delegates to the Prairie Regional Council had focused discussions on defending recent gains and growing the fightback against attacks on Canadian sovereignty.

WATCH VIDEO

Unifor urges Ottawa to act as Trump's move to double tariffs on Canadian steel and aluminum threatens jobs and economic stability.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 531 opens dedicated office space at Calgary International Airport.

READ MORE

The sudden closure of CHAT-TV in Medicine Hat, AB leads to layoffs and the end of seven decades of local news programming.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 195 members at the Best Western Plus in Windsor are on strike to resist concessions.

READ MORE

Ontario Regional Director Samia Hashi joins the Ontario Health Care Coalition board.

READ MORE

Unifor activists met in N.B. to discuss the epidemic of Intimate Partner Violence.

READ MORE

Unifor rallied at the B.C. legislature to demand accountability from BC Transit and the provincial government for striking Transdev workers.

WATCH VIDEO

BARGAINING UPDATES

Talks break off between Unifor and VIA Rail, setting the stage for a potential national rail strike on June 22.

READ MORE

Communities in Durham Region should be aware of potential strike action by transit workers on June 7.

READ MORE