

May 8, 2025

Atlantic Regional Council concludes with calls for solidarity, Unifor wins reversal of commission cuts at HBC, post-secondary scholarships from Unifor, fighting the elimination of shift at GM Oshawa, ruling upholds anti-dumping duties on silicon metal, Canadian film industry under threat, World Press Freedom Day, Red Dress Day webinar, celebrate nursing week, strike action at Niobec, and new collective agreements signed at First Student, Native Children and Family Services of Toronto, Select Finishing.

Hudson's Bay backtracks on cuts to workers' commissions after Unifor files grievance.

READ MORE

Unifor offers annual entrance scholarships to support members and their families pursuing post-secondary education.

APPLY TODAY

IN THE NEWS

Atlantic Regional Council in St. John's showed members that they are the union and highlighted the year's many achievements.

READ MORE

Unifor calls for swift action as GM plans to reduce Oshawa Assembly Plant to a two shift operation this fall due to Trump-imposed tariffs.

READ MORE

Unifor welcomes the decision by the Canadian International Trade Tribunal to uphold anti-dumping and countervailing duties on silicon metal from China.

READ MORE

The U.S. is focusing on the Canadian film industry with Trump's latest tariff threat.

READ MORE

World Press Freedom Day to pay tribute to journalists and media workers who have lost their lives in the line of duty.

READ MORE

To recognize Red Dress Day, Unifor members participated in an online workshop with activist Sandra Delaronde.

READ MORE

Nursing Week is a time to celebrate nurses and stand with them in the fight for better care.

READ MORE

300 Unifor members working for the Niobec mine in Saguenay go on strike.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Members of Unifor Local 4268 at First Student Bus drivers in Bowmanville, Ontario, have voted 87% in favour a new three-year contract.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 2488 members at Native Child and Family Services of Toronto have ratified a new three-year collective agreement.

READ MORE

Workers at Select Finishing in Wallaceburg, Ont. who provide custom coatings for metals and plastics are celebrating being new members at Unifor.

READ MORE