

October 9, 2025

Massive rally in Brampton shows support for auto workers, Unifor expresses concern over Canadian trade strategy, Unifor health care conference, Local Union Equity Fund deadline, Munro Academy workers ratify first agreement, Alberta teachers strike, Titan Tool & Die offer rejected, worker power in Mexico, students get exposure to the Skilled Trades, and a new contract at Penske Logistics.

Unifor health care members gathered in Port Elgin to refresh, reconnect, and refocus on the fight for respect, fair pay, and investment in public health care.

READ MORE

The deadline for fall applications to the Local Union Equity Fund is fast approaching on Oct. 20, 2025.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor members and community supporters rallied outside Stellantis' Brampton Plant to resist U.S. trade attacks and to fight to protect Canadian auto jobs.

READ MORE

Unifor warns that carving out steel, aluminum and energy from trade talks would weaken Canada's bargaining power ahead of deals in key sectors like auto and forestry.

READ MORE

Early Childhood Educators at Munro Academy in Cape Breton ratified their very first agreement, winning 40-hour workweeks and ending their three-week strike.

READ MORE

Delegates to the Prairie Women's Conference in Calgary heard from union and community leaders about the ongoing struggle for equity.

READ MORE

Unifor members support the province's teachers in their fight for public education funding and fair wages as their strike began Oct. 6.

READ MORE

Titan Tool & Die workers voted unanimously to back their bargaining committee's rejection of deep concessions on wages, pensions and retirement benefits.

READ MORE

Forty years on, Final Offer still packed a punch—and a theatre—reminding Canadians that the fight for workers' power never gets old.

READ MORE

Unifor hosts international gathering to strengthen union independence, democracy and worker power in Mexico.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Penske Logistics workers, represented by Unifor Local 4268 in Woodstock Ont., have ratified a new three-year agreement.

READ MORE