

September 25, 2025

Buzz Hargrove's celebration of life, Protect Canadian Jobs rally at the Stellantis plant, membership meeting at Amazon, Transdev strike ends with mediator agreement, submission in support of Chinese EV surtax, Orange Shirt Day, celebrating the 1945 Ford strike anniversary, and a strike at Blue Line Taxi.

Unifor representatives met with new members onsite at the Amazon fulfilment centre in Delta, B.C.

WATCH VIDEO

On Saturday, October 4 join the Protect Canadian Jobs rally outside the Stellantis Brampton Assembly Plant.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Basil "Buzz" Hargrove

March 8, 1944 – June 15, 2025

Hundreds of family, friends, and Unifor members came together to honour the remarkable life of Buzz Hargrove. The celebration captured the spirit of a leader whose legacy will continue to inspire workers across the country.

READ MORE

Unifor is beginning the return-to-work process with Transdev after a mediator helped end the seven-month strike.

READ MORE

Unifor is urging Ottawa to keep the 100% surtax on Chinese EVs, warning that lifting it would devastate Canada's auto industry.

READ MORE

September 30 marks the National Day for Truth and Reconciliation, a day for honouring the survivors of residential schools and those who did not return home.

READ MORE

Step inside a defining moment in Canadian labour history with the 40th anniversary screening of Final Offer on October 5 in Toronto.

READ MORE

Atlantic Regional Director Jennifer Murray joined members to celebrate the 100th anniversary of the Corner Brook Pulp and Paper mill.

READ MORE

Unifor's Workers in Transition Guide helps support trans members through workplace transition to create safer, more inclusive workplaces.

READ MORE

Unifor's Young Worker Activist Program helps members under 35 build skills, share experiences, and lead progressive change. Register by Oct. 10.

READ MORE

Unifor marked 80 years since the 1945 Ford Strike in Windsor, Ontario—the historic fight that led to the Rand Formula.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Blue Line Taxi drivers in Ottawa strike after the company walked away from bargaining and demanded a 20% stand fee hike.

Munro Academy has kept Early Childhood Educators on the picket line for two weeks, leaving parents without child care.

READ MORE

READ MORE