

unILINK

April 30, 2026

Quebec Council delegates set direction for environment and economy. Unifor-made cookies blast off to the moon. Spring Economic Update concerns. P.E.I. Intimate Partner Violence Symposium. Tariffs take toll with furniture manufacturer closures in Quebec. Members brace for curtailment at Nairn Centre sawmill and closure of Agropur Dairy Cooperative. Grand River Transit negotiations near deadline. New members welcomed at AGI Canadian Company.

WHAT'S HOT

Unifor made-in-Canada cookies defy gravity aboard the Artemis II mission.

READ MORE

TAKE ACTION

Local Secretary-Treasurers can access everything needed to manage local union finances in one spot. Check out the new convenient link.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Quebec Council charts the course for the future with a focus on just transition, mobilization and leadership.

READ MORE

The Spring Economic Update delivered new Skilled Trades training but also presented an overly-optimistic view of Canada's economy and revealed new risky plans to pursue airport privatization.

READ MORE

Unifor brought workers, advocates and frontline experts together in Charlottetown, P.E.I. for an urgent day of education, organizing and action on intimate partner violence.

READ MORE

Unifor calls for emergency support for the furniture manufacturing sector after closures of Bestar and South Shore in Quebec.

READ MORE

Unifor is calling for action from all levels of government following Interfor's curtailment at the Nairn Centre sawmill.

READ MORE

May is Asian Heritage Month, an invitation to recognize the cultural diversity, contributions and continued struggles of Asian and South Asian communities in Canada.

READ MORE

What Unifor members in Ontario need to know about the new PSW registry.

READ MORE

Unifor stands with members following Agropur dairy cooperative closure in Sussex, N.B.

READ MORE

On May 5, Unifor members across the country mark Red Dress Day to honour the Missing and Murdered Indigenous Women, Girls, and 2-Spirit people.

READ MORE

Ontario Retired Workers Council members met to discuss healthcare, pensions, and protecting Canadian jobs. See the photo album.

VIEW PHOTOS

On World Press Freedom Day Unifor is calling for urgent action to protect press freedom, strengthen local journalism, and ensure the safety and independence of media workers.

READ MORE

On May 1 each year, Unifor marks International Workers' Day, May Day, to celebrate worker solidarity and the labour movement.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 4304 is in the final week of negotiations with Grand River Transit for a fair agreement that recognizes the work of transit workers.

READ MORE

Unifor is proud to announce 35 new members from AGI Canadian Company have joined our union.

READ MORE