

unILINK

April 9, 2026

Long Term Care and Retirement Home worker conference, two of Canada's largest private sector unions sound the alarm over the effects of tariffs on working people, "Sell Here, Build Here" graphics, Quebec workers meet to discuss the future, London Health Sciences Centre restructuring, Equal Pay Day, strike votes at Nova Scotia retirement homes and the Fairmont Empress Hotel.

WHAT'S HOT

Canada's industrial future depends on action today. Read the joint statement by Unifor and the United Steelworkers.

READ MORE

TAKE ACTION

If companies want to sell in Canada, they've got to build here. Download the graphics and share them widely to help amplify Unifor's campaign.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor members working in long term care and retirement homes gathered to network and strategize for upcoming negotiations.

READ MORE

Unifor attends the General Assembly on Trade Unionism in Quebec.

READ MORE

Unifor raises concerns over LHSC restructuring staffing cuts and impact on frontline care.

READ MORE

Equal Pay Day marks the average additional time into the new year women must work to earn what men did by December 31.

READ MORE

Unifor members at three retirement homes in Nova Scotia will be in a legal strike position as of April 16, after a "no board" report was issued last week.

READ MORE

Unifor members at the Fairmont Empress in Victoria vote to strike if necessary.

READ MORE