

February 12, 2026

Unifor rallies on Parliament Hill in defence of public health care. National Skilled Trades Conference kicks off. New federal auto policy. Amazon U.K. workers trade organizing strategies. Telco media conference to protect Canadian jobs. Unifor denounces transit funding cuts. Register for the Social Justice Day webinar. Black History Month and Area Schools events, and bargaining begins for Fairmont Empress and forestry members.

 WHAT'S HOT

Unifor's National Skilled Trades Collective Bargaining & New Technology Conference brought Skilled Trades members together from across the country. View the photo gallery.

 TAKE ACTION

Join Unifor on World Day of Social Justice for a webinar on fairness, workers' rights, and building a more just economy on February 20 at 12:30 p.m. EST. Register in advance.

VIEW PHOTOS

REGISTER NOW

IN THE NEWS

Unifor members took the fight for public health care to Parliament Hill, meeting with MPs and senators and rallying with allies to stop privatization and strengthen public care.

READ MORE

Unifor welcomes the new federal auto policy but bold action is needed to secure Canadian auto jobs and a future for workers at idled plants in Brampton and Ingersoll.

READ MORE

Unifor looks forward to continuing its collective bargaining relationship with LG Energy Solution as it assumes full ownership of Windsor's NextStar Energy battery plant.

READ MORE

Unifor and United Kingdom Amazon warehouse workers joined to exchange strategies and hard-won insights from efforts to organize one of the world's largest employers.

READ MORE

A union coalition announced the new Canadian Telecommunications Workers Alliance this week with a call to stop offshoring telecom jobs.

READ MORE

Unifor denounces federal funding cuts to public transit, which threaten safe, reliable service and push costs onto working people and municipalities already under strain.

READ MORE

Register now for Unifor's national Black History Month event, taking place on Feb. 28 in person and online, to celebrate the remarkable achievements of Unifor members across Canada.

REGISTER NOW

Area Schools bring education right to your region. Check the schedule and learn more about what's available near you today.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Mental health and affordability top the agenda as Unifor Local 4276 opened bargaining this week with the Fairmont Empress Hotel.

READ MORE

Unifor delegates from Eastern Canada kicked off forestry bargaining by selecting Domtar as the target company for the upcoming round of pattern bargaining.

READ MORE