

February 26, 2026

Local 1285 member information meeting, Lunar New Year, Health and Safety Conference, GTA presidents' meeting, Repetitive Strain Injury Awareness Day, Brampton City Council zones for auto assembly, World Day for Social Justice, Diageo closure, and U.S. Supreme Court ruling on tariffs.

Unifor members, their families, and local elected representatives celebrated the Lunar New Year at the Western Regional Office.

VIEW PHOTOS

Save the date for Unifor's Health and Safety Conference: Root Cause, Real Change, taking place April 10–12.

REGISTER NOW

IN THE NEWS

Lana Payne and Local 1285 leadership met with members to call on Stellantis reverse the idling of the Brampton Assembly Plant.

READ MORE

Toronto-area local presidents met this week, hearing from various Unifor departments and exchanging ideas for mobilizing.

READ MORE

February 28 marks Repetitive Strain Injury Awareness Day. Learn more with our fact sheet.

READ MORE

Brampton City Council votes unanimously to rezone the Stellantis Brampton Assembly Plant lands for auto manufacturing only.

READ MORE

Unifor marked World Day for Social Justice with a webinar discussing the growing criminalization of migrant workers.

READ MORE

In a final show of disrespect, Diageo closed its Amherstburg Crown Royal operations early without advance warning to workers.

READ MORE

The risk to Canadian jobs remains at crisis levels despite the U.S. Supreme Court decision to strike down IEEPA tariffs.

READ MORE