

February 5, 2026

Media conference with Canada's labour leaders, Metro Vancouver transit bargaining, Black History Month, Bombardier under threat, BIWOC conference, Bell layoffs, Halifax Area Recreation Committee, 4-week Paid Education Leave program, and Pink Shirt Day posters.

WHAT'S HOT

Cost of living pressures and health and safety are driving new contract negotiations with Coast Mountain Bus Company.

READ MORE

TAKE ACTION

Share Unifor's Black History Month poster and social media graphics to honour the contributions of Black members who are shaping our workplaces and union.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Lana Payne joined labour leaders from across the private and public sectors to send a united message: Canada needs a worker-centred economic strategy.

WATCH VIDEO

Unifor urges Ottawa to defend Canada's aerospace sector and the good union jobs

Unifor is deeply concerned by Bell Media layoffs of members responsible for high-quality, fact-based journalism.

it supports as Trump threatens Bombardier.

READ MORE

READ MORE

Unifor's 2025 BIWOC Conference honoured resistance and made room for healing and solidarity.

Apply now for Unifor's 4-Week Paid Education Leave program to build leadership and advance the fight for equity,
justice and collective action.

WATCH VIDEO

READ MORE

Unifor's Halifax Area Recreation Committee held it's inaugural meeting.

READ MORE

Unifor's new "Be Kind" posters are available now! Proudly display these in your workplace to take a stand against all forms of bullying and harassment.

READ MORE