

June 11, 2026

Atlantic Regional Council delegates unite to fight, National Indigenous Peoples Day events celebrated across the country, Unifor calls on GTAA to protect workers affected by contract flipping, union urges government to reconsider Online Streaming Act changes, members mark 25 years of Pride activism, Quinte Health workers push back against frontline health care cuts, Human Rights Conference registration opens, Member Appreciation Day returns to Wonderland, and bargaining updates from Fairmont Empress, Coast Mountain Bus Company and Northern Ontario hospital workers.

Take a look back on Unifor's 2025 Pride Conference, which marked the 25th anniversary of the union's first conference of its kind.

WATCH VIDEO

Celebrate National Indigenous Peoples Day at a community event near you.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Atlantic delegates gathered in Saint John for Atlantic Regional Council 2026, united by the powerful theme: We're All Worth the Fight.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 8300 members at Quinte Health protest the elimination of more frontline health care jobs, while patients and workers continue to pay the price.

READ MORE

Unifor called on the Greater Toronto Airports Authority to protect the 500 workers affected by contract flipping with the AGI licence revocation and ensure workforce stability at Toronto Pearson.

READ MORE

Unifor is urging the government to reverse its decision to exempt U.S. streaming giants from contributing to Canada's media system, warning that the move puts journalism jobs and local news at risk.

READ MORE

Unifor's Member Appreciation Day at Wonderland is coming up, get your tickets and bring your family out for a fun filled day.

READ MORE

Don't miss it! Unifor's Human Rights Conference is back this July 10-12, and registration is filling up quickly.

READ MORE

Unifor offers annual scholarships to support members and their families pursuing post-secondary education. Apply by June 19.

READ MORE

May's Labour Market Insights takes a closer look at how Canada's jobs market is doing from a trade union perspective.

READ MORE

Local 4276 members ratified a new industry-leading contract at the Fairmont Empress in Victoria.

READ MORE

Unifor Northern Ontario hospital workers ratify new three-year deal representing more than 2,000 members in the region.

READ MORE

Unifor and Coast Mountain Bus Company agree to enter mediation as transit bargaining continues.

READ MORE