

March 5, 2026

Unifor members and their families celebrate Black History Month, new members at Porter Airlines, International Women's Day, New Flyer expands operations in Winnipeg, Diageo final report, scabs at Titan Tool, and Unifor calls on Nova Scotia government to let Bill 148 die.

Unifor is proud to welcome 31 new members from Porter Airlines at Toronto's Billy Bishop Airport.

READ MORE

Find an International Women's Day event near you.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor's Black History Month celebration in Toronto brought members together to honour Black leadership and recommit to advancing equity, justice, and solidarity.

READ MORE

Metro Vancouver area Unifor members and their families gathered to celebrate Black History and “remember what we forgot” about the struggles for justice.

VIEW PHOTOS

A new transit vehicle manufacturing facility will create new Local 3003 jobs and help secure Winnipeg as a key green manufacturing hub.

READ MORE

In preparation for International Women’s Day, Unifor National President Lana Payne shares a message of solidarity and action.

WATCH VIDEO

The Crown Royal plant in Amherstburg, ON has closed, after the company relocated 200 jobs to the U.S. Read the final report by Unifor Local 200.

READ MORE

After more than 200 days locked out, Titan Tool workers are strengthening picket lines in Windsor after the company was caught using scabs inside the facility.

READ MORE

Unifor is calling on the Nova Scotia government not to appeal Bill 148, which was deemed as unconstitutional by the Superior Court.

READ MORE

RIGHTS.
ACTION.
JUSTICE.

INTERNATIONAL WOMEN'S DAY 2026

On International Women's Day we celebrate our power, our progress, and our solidarity.

READ MORE