

unILINK

May 7, 2026

Prairie Regional Council, Unifor wins legal fight with Accuride, National Skilled Trades Council, Unifor weighs in on energy exports, telco giants misusing AI, May Day rally, Somali Hope Foundation, supporting women in the Skilled Trades, Unifor in the nuclear sector, Day of Mourning, new contract ratified at Grand River Transit, and talks break off at Marine Atlantic.

WHAT'S HOT

Unifor Local 27 wins pension battle for former Accuride workers.

READ MORE

TAKE ACTION

Last chance to register for the June National Skilled Trades Council.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor members in the Prairie provinces met last week to discuss the mobilization for Alberta's fall referendum and other political campaigns in which workers' rights are at stake.

READ MORE

Lana Payne urged the Standing Committee on Natural Resources to put energy workers at the centre of Canada's plan to become an energy superpower.

READ MORE

Unifor warns that the current use of AI in telecom is misleading customers, and threatening Canadian data, sovereignty and good jobs.

READ MORE

Local 88 members from CAMI packed the union hall for an update on the future of the idled facility and the road ahead for auto bargaining.

READ MORE

Unifor members take to the streets in Montreal for International Workers' Day.

READ MORE

Unifor donated to support the Somali Hope Foundation, a charity that provides free education to children in rural Somalia.

READ MORE

Unifor and CN Rail back women in trades with $200,000 grant to Women Building Futures.

READ MORE

SPEA-Local 7474 Vice President Reza Ziaei spoke at the nuclear sector's annual conference about the important role of unions in Canada's nuclear energy workplaces.

READ MORE

Unifor members observe National Day of Mourning.

READ MORE

Unifor and the Canadian Labour Congress issued a joint May Day statement committing to protect Canadian jobs and build a strong worker-first economy.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

850 Grand River Transit workers represented by Unifor Local 4304 members ratify tentative agreement with Region of Waterloo.

READ MORE

Mediated negotiations between Unifor and Marine Atlantic were broken off after the employer ignored union proposals.

READ MORE