UNIFOR UNILINK

November 13, 2026

Unifor condemns Stellantis' decision to sell the Brampton Assembly Plant, new Women's Conference video, take action to defend the right to strike as Bill C-39 moves through Parliament, Unifor responds to the federal budget, Pickering and Ajax casinos end strike action, the union wins major victory at Quebec Court of Appeal over remote work and anti-scab protections, Unifor pays tribute on Remembrance Day, order your Human Rights Day poster, World Toilet Day statement on safe and accessible washrooms, and bargaining updates from Autobus Venise, Active Dynamics, and High Liner Foods.

WHAT'S HOT

TAKE ACTION

Resist. Rise. Reimagine. Watch the 2026 Women's Conference video.

WATCH VIDEO

C-39 continues to be rushed through Parliament, take action to protect the right to strike.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor condemns Stellantis' decision to sell Brampton Assembly Plant and walk away from its commitments to workers. The sale undermines Canada's auto strategy and breaks the federal government's promise to protect autoworkers amid the U.S. trade war.

READ MORE

On Remembrance Day, Unifor honoured those who served and remembered those who never returned home. Read Unifor's statement.

READ MORE

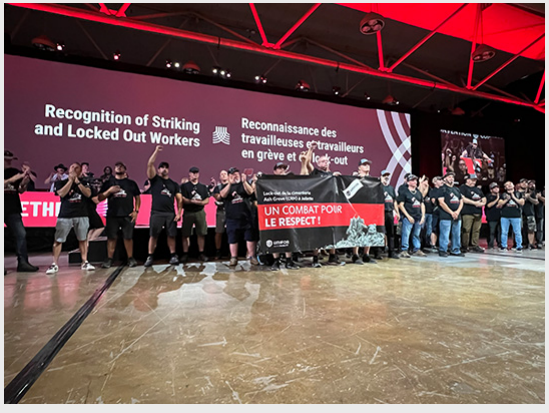

Watch Unifor's media conference on the sale of Brampton Assembly Plant.

WATCH VIDEO

Unifor Local 1090 members at the Pickering and Ajax casinos end strike action with ratification of a new collective agreement with Great Canadian Entertainment.

READ MORE

Remote work and scabs: Unifor wins major victory at Quebec Court of Appeal

READ MORE

Unifor responds to the 2026 federal budget, where government made big bets on corporate investment incentives.

READ MORE

Order posters for the 2026 Human Rights Day, to show your commitment to human rights year-round.

READ MORE

World Toilet Day is a reminder that safe and accessible washrooms are essential to workers' health, dignity and equality on the job.

READ MORE

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor members at Active Dynamics have ratified a new three-year agreement after showing solidarity on a picket line for 17 days.

Unifor members at High Liner Foods ratified a new collective agreement securing significant wage increases and improvements to working conditions.

READ MORE

READ MORE

School bus drivers at Autobus Venise, represented by Unifor Local 700, voted 74% in favour of ratifying a tentative agreement reached with their employer during conciliation on November 5.

READ MORE