

September 3, 2026

Canadian Council delegates band together to defend industries impacted by the U.S. trade war, show your solidarity at a Unifor Labour Day event, General Motors members overwhelmingly ratify new contract, negotiations with Stellantis begin, new video spotlights forestry industry, CC2026 honours Bud Jimmerfield Award recipient, CRTC move to protect Canadian programming on streaming services welcomed, Unifor calls on the Quebec government to buy local and support PACCAR, Local 333-BC transit workers launch an overtime ban, and Local 111 transit workers escalate job action over unsafe running and recovery times.

Contract talks with Stellantis are underway. Watch the media update on negotiations.

WATCH VIDEO

This Labour Day, stand with your union family, show your solidarity and celebrate! Find a Labour Day event near you.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor's 2026 Canadian Council 2026 committed to intensifying the fight to protect Canadian jobs with delegates rallying on Parliament Hill.

READ MORE

Members at General Motors voted overwhelmingly to ratify agreements that deliver new products and investment, and strong pattern wage and benefit gains.

READ MORE

Unifor opened negotiations with Stellantis with a clear focus to secure good jobs and position more than 9,000 members for a strong future.

READ MORE

Unifor calls on Quebec government to prioritize PACCAR in awarding of public procurement contract.

READ MORE

Unifor welcomes the CRTC's move to ensure Canadian programming is visible on streaming services, while urging the federal government to quickly implement contribution requirements for digital streamers.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 333-BC transit workers begin overtime ban, after more than a year without a collective agreement.

READ MORE

Canada's forestry industry is under attack by the escalating trade war and tariffs launched by Donald Trump's regime. Watch why we need to stand up for Unifor forestry workers.

WATCH VIDEO

Unifor Local 111 transit operators are escalating job action over unsafe running and recovery times.

READ MORE

Congratulations to Unifor Local 114 member Cheryl Williams, recipient of the 2026 Bud Jimmerfield Award, recognizing a decade of leadership in making Cascade Aerospace a safer place to work.

READ MORE