

November 18, 2021

Unifor was part of the COP26 labour delegation in Glasgow, order your PPE package now, Unifor's safe rest stops campaign expands, warnings about the spread of right-wing politics, childcare in Alberta, getting ready for World Toilet Day, plus download Unifor's new style guide.

 WHAT'S HOT

Workplaces, restaurants and more are slowly

 TAKE ACTION

Unifor's Road Transport Council

reopening, but we still need to be safe. Order your official Unifor PPE package at the Unifor online store, and check out the other swag while you're at there, too.

READ MORE

voted to expand its Ontario campaign for safe rest stops to every province in a push to make roads safer and protect long-haul drivers.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Unifor was among several Canadian unions and labour organizations at the recent COP26 climate change meetings in Glasgow, Scotland, to help ensure Canada signed onto the Just Transition Declaration.

READ MORE

Alberta premier Jason Kenney achieved nothing by delaying the federally-sponsored childcare

Unifor recognizes World Toilet Day as an opportunity to raise awareness about regions and workplaces where workers still fight for the program.

READ MORE

The storm of right-wing politics that has raged in the United States is showing signs of coming north and affecting Canada, Duke University historian and author Nancy MacLean told a Unifor meeting this week.

READ MORE

basic dignity of safe sanitation.

READ MORE

Unifor recognises November 20 as the Trans Day of Remembrance (TDOR). We mourn the lives lost and stand alongside trans members and their families as they seek to live with the dignity, safety and freedom that we all need and deserve.

READ MORE

Unifor members working at BASF in Windsor successfully fought back concessions to negotiate a new collective agreement that includes wage increases and fairer discipline policy.

READ MORE

 IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

 RESOURCES

Last week truck assembly returned to Oshawa, after a three-year fight. Watch this award-winning video on how Unifor saved Oshawa GM:

WATCH VIDEO

Download the updated Unifor Identity Guidelines, which explains the do's and don'ts on how you can use the union's trademark, logo and branding in union materials.

READ MORE