

September 16, 2021

Unifor volunteers are canvassing for progressive candidates as Election Day approaches, National President Jerry Dias warns workers of Conservative con job, members participate in webinar on the generational effects of the residential school system, plus Unifor calls to ban offshoring of good telcom jobs and Retirees hold first online Retired Workers Council.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

National President Jerry Dias says workers know a Conservative con-job when they see one and will not be fooled by Erin O'Toole.

READ MORE

Show up for a Unifor Votes event this weekend to volunteer and connect with your community! This election will be decided on a razor-thin margin, every action counts.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

Monday is E-Day! Use the vote plan tool for information on how you can cast your ballot.

READ MORE

An emotional webinar hosted by Unifor’s Education Department examined the state’s genocidal treatment of Indigenous children and how it is still felt today.

READ MORE

Our Telecoms, Our Jobs: It is time to ban the offshoring of good, union jobs and personal data. Read the Toronto Star joint op-ed by Unifor’s Jerry Dias and CUPE’s Mark Hancock.

READ MORE

Unifor retirees from across the country logged on to participate in the first virtual Retired Workers Council to discuss key issues and set a course for the upcoming year.

READ MORE

For the first time in 17 months, Unifor members were back in the classroom this week participating in our Paid Education Leave program at the union’s Family Education Centre in Port Elgin, Ontario.

READ MORE

UNIFOR RESEARCH DEPARTMENT

LABOUR MARKET INSIGHTS

A monthly review of labour market indicators
August 2021

Labour Market Insights Report for August shows women continue to bear the brunt of precarious work, with more than half of women who work part-time saying they would rather be full time.

READ MORE

Unifor Local 4003 has reached a tentative agreement with Toronto Terminals Railway following weeks of negotiations.

READ MORE

Major advances in overtime fairness are one of the highlights of a new three-year contract signed by Local 914.

READ MORE

IN CASE YOU MISSED IT

We know exactly where Conservative policies will take us: more cuts, and more money to big corporations over working

RESOURCES

In order to build back better, Canada must create an income security system that protects workers and improves affordability throughout the country. Read our federal election recovery

Canadians. Watch Unifor's election ad.

WATCH VIDEO

sheet on income security and affordability.

READ MORE