

July 18, 2024

Unifor members demand health care funding from Premiers. F-Series Super Duty trucks to be built by Local 707 Ford members in Oakville. Canadian media at critical juncture as Global News cuts hollow out local news coverage. Best Theratronics members and union leadership join together at picket line solidarity rally to pressure company to return to the table. The Unifor Social Justice Fund supports migrant agricultural workers in the Dominican Republic and more.

 WHAT'S HOT

 TAKE ACTION

Unifor rallies in solidarity as Best Theratronics workers' strike reaches 75 days.

WATCH VIDEO

Register now for the Retired Workers Council taking place September 1 – 6 at the Unifor Family Education Centre in Port Elgin.

READ MORE

IN THE NEWS

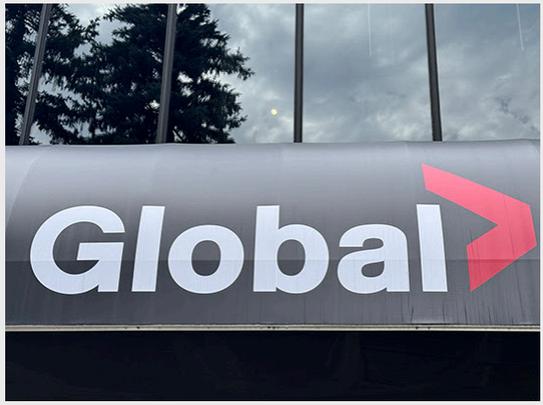

National President Lana Payne and Atlantic Regional Director Jennifer Murray rallied in Halifax with hundreds of health care workers and advocates to demand Canada's premiers protect and fund public health care.

READ MORE

Ford members welcome news that F-Series Super Duty trucks will be produced at Oakville Assembly Complex starting in 2026.

READ MORE

Unifor is deeply concerned after Global News announced job cuts that will affect Unifor media workers and journalists across the country.

READ MORE

After 75 days on the picket line, Unifor members at Best Theratronics delivered a stern and powerful message to their employer: Get back to the bargaining table and negotiate a fair deal.

READ MORE

Read the letter Unifor sent to the federal government demanding they reverse their recent decision to allow large-scale corporate trawling of cod off the coast of Newfoundland and Labrador.

READ MORE

Unifor Social Justice Fund supports Haitian migrant workers in the Dominican Republic through partnership with Banana Link and the formation of a new national workers' union.

READ MORE

Atlantic members and their families celebrate at the annual Black Indigenous and Workers of Colour Committee BBQ in Halifax.

VIEW PHOTOS

BARGAINING UPDATES

Unifor Local 21-A members at GATX Rail Canada ratify a new 4-year agreement with significant wage increases, improved benefits, and strong member support.

READ MORE